CNH CAPITAL CANADA RECEIVABLES TRUST

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS FOR THE THREE MONTHS ENDED MARCH 31, 2020 (In Canadian Dollars) (Unaudited)

GENERAL

Management's Discussion and Analysis ("MD&A"), dated August 21, 2020, should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018. Management is responsible for the reliability and timeliness of the information disclosed in the MD&A.

BUSINESS OF THE TRUST

CNH Capital Canada Receivables Trust (the "Trust") was established by a declaration of trust made as of September 11, 2000, as supplemented by a supplemental declaration of trust made as of April 29, 2010 pursuant to which Computershare Trust Company of Canada succeeded The Canada Trust Company as issuer trustee. On October 16, 2019, Canadian Western Trust Company (the "Issuer Trustee") succeeded to Computershare Trust Company of Canada, as issuer trustee of the Trust. The indenture trustee pursuant to the master trust indenture dated September 1, 2000, as supplemented from time to time, is Computershare Trust Company of Canada (as successor to BNY Trust Company of Canada), with its principal office located at 100 University Avenue, 8th Floor, Toronto, Ontario, M5J 2Y1.

The Trust's activities are limited to the securing and administration of retail installment contracts originated by CNH Industrial Capital Canada Ltd. ("CNH Industrial Capital Canada", "Administrator", "Servicer" or "Seller") to finance the purchase of new or used agricultural or construction equipment. The Trust issues asset-backed notes ("Notes") and subordinated loans in Series ("Series") with varying terms to finance the acquisition of the receivables and uses collections on the receivables to pay its obligations.

Pursuant to the Administration Agreement between the Issuer Trustee and the Administrator, and the Sale and Servicing Agreement between the Issuer Trustee and the Servicer, CNH Industrial Capital Canada carries out certain administrative and management activities for and on behalf of the Trust, including the administration, servicing, and collection of the receivables. The Trust pays a nominal fee to CNH Industrial Capital Canada for the performance of the activities and fulfillment of its responsibilities under the Administration Agreement. No fee is payable by the Trust to CNH Industrial Capital Canada for the servicing activities since the receivables are sold to the Trust on a fully serviced basis. The Trust has no employees.

The Trust has been structured to provide investors in the Class A and B Notes payments that amortize on a monthly basis concurrent with the principal collections activity on the underlying receivables.

Each Series of Notes benefits from Series-specific enhancements in the form of the deferred purchase price, excess spread and amounts deposited in a cash reserve account. The deferred purchase price ("deferred purchase price") represents the difference between the amount at which the Trust records the ownership interest in receivables and the amount payable to CNH Industrial Capital Canada for the purchase of the ownership interest in receivables. Excess spread is the monthly excess of all interest collections on the receivables after the Trust payment obligations are satisfied. The Due to Seller ("Due to Seller") includes both the deferred purchase price and the excess spread. The reserve accounts are Series-specific accounts funded at the time of issuance of the relevant Series from the proceeds of the issuance. Amounts on deposit in the reserve account for a Series are available to cover any shortfalls in funds available to meet specific payments for that Series as outlined in the related transaction documents and will not be released to the Seller until that Series is paid in full.

In May 2019, a clean-up call was exercised by CNH Industrial Capital Canada with respect to Series 2015-2 whereby $49,862,023 of retail installment contracts were sold at book value to CNH Industrial Capital Canada. Also related to this clean-up call, the Series 2015-2 Class A-1 Notes, the Series 2015-2 Class B Notes and the Series 2015-2 Subordinated loans were repaid in full.

In addition to the foregoing, and as previously disclosed, the challenges posed by the ongoing Novel Coronavirus ("COVID-19") pandemic on the economy continued during the second quarter. COVID 19 has caused disruption and volatility in the capital markets and an economic slowdown. The economic slowdown may impact the ability of obligors to make payments on their receivables. In response to COVID 19, national and local governments have instituted certain measures, including travel bans, prohibitions on group events and gatherings, shutdowns of certain businesses, curfews, shelter-in-place orders and recommendations to practice social distancing. The duration of these measures is unknown and may be extended, reimposed and/or additional measures may be imposed. The ultimate severity of the COVID-19 pandemic is uncertain at this time and therefore the Trust cannot predict the impact it may have on the capacity of obligors to repay the receivables; however, the effect on the Trust's results in subsequent periods may be material and adverse.

NET LOSS RATIO AND DELINQUENCY RATE

Activity during the period resulted in a loss ratio of 0.11% and a delinquency rate of 0.15% at June 30, 2020.
